GIRVANI is an Edu-Cult program, organised on 20th October 2015, meant to inculcate a sense of culture and unity through education which is the essence of any Indian festival at Green Heaven Institute of Management and Research. (GHIMR). Navratri is a portrait of colour, action, music and togetherness and is celebrated in a grand manner in GHIMR. Students and staff organised themselves into groups and perform Raas and Garba in the college, dressed in colourful traditional Indian ethnic costumes and danced to the age old traditional Navratri rhythms. To inculcate and develop the selling and entrepreneurial skills of students, they were encouraged to put different stalls of eatables and other accessories during the program.

Special invitees were Sarpanch and people of Rui Village to celebrate this festival of joy together. The program was organized under the guidance of Director of the institute, Dr. T. Kalyani and co-ordinated by Dr. P L Thakur. Dr T Kalyani and Shri Anil Sharma appreciated the efforts of students and staff.
