GHIMR observed Vigilance Awareness Week

India is drifting from developing nation to developed nation, and as a result of this change, there can be evil as well as turbulence in Society. So as to develop moral values among students, Vigilance Awareness Week is been observed from 26th to 31st of October 2015, as per the directives from the Central Vigilance commission a body installed by the Government of India, an apex vigilance Institution of the country to promote the probity and integrity in the governance. Green Heaven Institute of Management and Research(GHIMR), Nagpur has organized 3 day program from 29th to 31st October 2015.

Dr. T. Kalyani, Director, GHIMR read the message of President and Prime Minister of India at the inauguration of the program. On the first day Institute organized Elocution competition on the topic “ Corruption-The Biggest Bottleneck in Economic Progress”. 10 students from Semester-1 and 3 of MBA participated in this competition. After the discussion it was concluded that Corruption is of the most damaging consequences of poor governance system. It is characterized by lack of both transparency and accountability. Corruption lowers investment and hinders economic growth also human development. It also limits access to basic social services as well as increases the cost of their delivery. On the second day Panel discussion was organised which consisted of panel of faculty members. This discussion was based on the topic “ Fighting Corruption right from the classroom”. On the last day Slogan writing competition was organized among students of MBA. The program was co-ordinated by Prof. Avinash Bhowate and was assisted by Prof. Mubina Saifee. Management provided all the support to successfully organize this event.
